Nature of the decision	In 2016 a procurement exercise was completed for the provision of a new collaboration and productivity platform to help mature the working practices of the Council and gain greater utility from the technology available in the marketplace. The recommended technology implemented was Google Apps for Work. Over the last two years, the adoption of the platform has been a success and has acted as a real catalyst for MCC's drive towards new ways of working.
